Internal Quality Assurance Report (IQAR) 2007-2008

submitted to

NATIONAL ASSESSMENT & ACCREDITATION COUNCIL, BANGLORE

PART 'A'

Keeping in mind the reaccreditation process, in this post accreditation period, the IQAC channelise the efforts and measures of the institution towards academic excellence. Already three reports have been submitted to NAAC, Bangalore. This year is announced by UNO as an International Potato year, so efforts are taken in that direction to create awareness of individual health. In this year the plan of action chalked by the IQAC in the beginning of the year is towards the quality enhancement and the outcome achieved by the end of the year is mentioned below.

Infrastructural planning :

Having the need of more classrooms, an auditorium, a ladies' room, a four-wheeler parking and one more ladies hostel, our parent institution has permitted to complete the ladies hostel on priority. Last year University Grants Commission sanctioned the grant of one crore for the same and the required construction has been started this year.

Following are the plans to enrich the infrastructural facilities of the college.

1. Extra two-wheeler parking shade
2. College campus extension
3. Plantation on college campus
4. Piped water from Nerli lake.

Curricular Activities :

1. Under University Grants Commission two career oriented courses are started
 - a. Teaching of English

- b. Water and Soil Analysis.
2. Four short-term certificate courses are arranged at college :
 - a. Fashion Designing
 - b. Catering and Cooking
 - c. Imitation Jewelry
3. MHT-CET counseling center from 1st July, 2007
4. Volunteers' Training programme on 24th December 2007.
